Debbie Trevino has built a reputation as a strategic partner for a wide-range of DFW organizations. As a partner at Delta Dallas, Debbie works with firms to help them best hire top-tier talent, increase staffing effectiveness, and reduce attrition. She has a comprehensive grasp of cyclical hiring plans and the ability to help clients conduct staffing audits, develop systems for workforce management and implement strategic hiring plans. For 18 years, Debbie has worked alongside DFW clients helping them to align their staffing requirements with company objectives.

Under Debbie's leadership, Delta Dallas was named Small Business of the Year by the North Dallas Chamber of commerce, has maintained double-digit growth for nearly two decades, and is the only firm in the DFW area to earn national accreditation through the National Association of Personnel Consultants. Specializing in the placement of accounting, administrative and call center professionals, Delta Dallas has become known as a premiere resource for temporary, temp-to-hire, and direct-hire needs. She has led Delta Dallas to the top ranks for professional staffing firms by emphasizing customer service, communication, and best practices.

Debbie is an energetic, sought-after public speaker whose popularity extends beyond the staffing industry to reach clients, business organizations, and corporations of every size. She leverages her dynamic style to offer insight on topics such as recruiting, sales, customer service, leadership, and business management bringing her audience value through tools that empower positive change.
